THE INTERNATIONAL RURAL NETWORK FORUM - “DEVELOPMENT DIALOGUES AND DILEMMAS”

Udaipur, India, August 23rd - 28th, 2009

International Rural Network South Asia Group (IRNSAG) in partnership with Seva Mandir, announce this event at Udaipur, Rajasthan, India.

The forum spread over 5 days will convene practitioners, policy makers, activists and scholars to exchange knowledge and information on trends, responses, and good practices. In small group workshops, clinics, plenary sessions and field trips, over 300 delegates will share what they know about creating rural wealth and overcoming rural poverty as equals, learning from each others' experiences.

The Forum will provide an excellent opportunity to showcase practice and policy in India as well as for Indian and other delegates to network and share knowledge about experiences from around 60 countries, 'North' and 'South'.
